	20.1.2004 Shri Prashant Jaiswal, counsel for the petitioners. Shri Rajesh Pandey, Government Advocate for the State. Heard. The matter relates to Gurujis. By this petition under Article 226/227 of the constitution of India, petitioner challenges the termination order dated 20.4.2002 (Annexure P-4) and contended that the services of the petitioners have been terminated illegally. Counsel for the respondent/State pointed out that the appeal lies to the Director, Panchayats as per the notification the powers of Commissioner have been transferred to the Director, Panchayats. He further submits that the petitioners have not joined Nagar Panchayat as party. It is also submitted that the order Annexure P-4 is appealable, but the appeal has not been preferred. Counsel for the petitioner submits that he may be permitted to withdraw this petition with liberty to file appeal before the Director, Panchayats by joining necessary parties. Counsel for the State submits that the petitioners may avail the remedy of appeal within 15 days from today by joining proper parties.
